

Gerald "Moe" Guy

September 29, 1941 - November 27, 2019

Gerald LeRoy Guy, "Moe", of Rapid City passed away chipping golf balls at his home on Wednesday, Nov. 27Th, 2019. Moe was born September 29th, 1941 in Pontiac, MI to Robert and Pauline (McDonald) Guy. Moe was an avid sports fan and watched the Tigers and Lions with hopes and prayers for success. During his youth he was a talented basketball and baseball player. He graduated from Rapid City High School and began his long career as a mason.

Moe married Carol Ann Peck of Rapid City in September of 1962. Moe and Carol worked very hard to build their home on Rapid River, sharing their home with family and friends throughout the years. Moe began playing golf and sharing his love of the game with nephews, friends and family. Moe was a patient and humorous man who always had a warm and caring thought for all who knew him.

He is preceded in death by his wife Carol Ann, his parents Robert and Pauline, his sister Sandee Guy and his brother Sam Guy.

Moe will be lovingly remembered and deeply missed by his son Robert "Rob" (Susie) Guy, his daughter Natalie "Nan" (Greg) Hazard; grandchildren Sharayaha (Joey) Guy, Caleb (Courtney) Guy, Zachary Hazard and his first great-grandchild Matilda "Tillie" Guy; siblings Tom (Mary) Guy, Pam (Ralph) Soffredine, Mary (Jerry) Lewis; in-laws including the entire Peck Family, friends and neighbors of Rapid City.

A celebration to honor his life will be announced at a later date. The family would like to extend a very sincere Thank You to Mimi Gribbi, Doug and Wes for being such wonderful and caring neighbors. Arrangements have been entrusted to Kalkaska Funeral Home and Cremation Services.
