“ On November 29th our family lost one of our greatest loved one. This love one is Rose Collins my grandmother. This is to everyone that knew her, “You can shed tears that she is gone, Or you can smile because she has lived.” My own heart celebrates the long life she had and the memories that she has instilled in our hearts for the rest of our lives.

It is a saddened time temporarily for family and friends that crossed paths of this beautiful woman my grandmother. She was always helping those in trouble and devoted herself to all kinds of good deeds, taking care of her love my grandfather, and such as bringing up children, grandchildren, and showing hospitality to all.

For those that hearts hurt please have rest in the fact that her soul is now up in Heaven, and you'll see her again someday. Take this time to give your life to the Lord our savior Jesus. I pray that God sends his angels to give all in this family and friends the love and comfort during this time.

Remember no one loves us quite as much as our grandmas do. Keep in your heart the love she gave to all of you. Remember it was Rose Collins like many grandmas and great-grandmas that like to spoil their children and grandchildren.

During this time remembering the love Grandma Rose had for all of us. It is her that would not want for us to become lost in hurt in her journey to heaven. Take time in prayer for you into God's peace and love comforts you through the pain you're feeling right now. I also pray he helps you from the hurting to recover and heal, in time, from this heartbreaking loss.

Grandma Rose is now surrounded by the glory of God. She has arrived in the eternal home – Heaven. We do not have to be sad; we can be comforted with what the Bible promises. The eternal home is for those that receive Jesus and blessed to be in his glory. But before we get there we sometimes see loved ones go before us.

And Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, To day shalt thou be with me in paradise. | Luke 23:43

For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's. | Romans 14:8

This verse begins, “Children's children are a crown to the aged.” If you need a reminder about the love of grandparents, here it is. This is one reason grandmothers are so quick to share stories of photos of their beloved grandkids.

Proverbs 17:6

In conclusion Jesus came and prepared her place in heaven.

John 14:1-4

Jesus' words, “Do not let your hearts be troubled. Trust in God; trust also in me. In my Father's house are many rooms; if it were not so, I would have told you. I am going there to prepare a place for you.”

I love you Grandma, Rose Collins From your first born grandchild Michael.
