

Sheryl R. Curry

December 1, 1963 - January 23, 2020

Sheryl Renee (Ramey) Curry, 56, of Kalkaska, Michigan passed away along with her husband of 38 years, Brian William Curry on January 23, 2020 at their home. Sheryl was born on December 1, 1963 in Columbus, Ohio to the late Norman Paul Ramey and Joyce Ann (Pfof) Lynch. Sheryl is survived by her daughter Molly (Romaine) Watts, son-in-law Jay Watts and two grandsons James Spencer Watts and Owen William Watts. She is also survived by her siblings, Stephanie (Nathan) Smith, Richard (Krystal) Lynch Jr, and Donna (Thomas) Higgins and several nieces and nephews.

Sherry, as she preferred to be called, moved with her family to Louisiana during her middle school years. In school, Sherry seemed to have a natural music ability and learned to play many different instruments, among them were the accordion and clarinet and was in the Broadmoor High School marching band.

After Sherry and Brian married, 25 July 1981, they eventually moved to Florida, where they lived for many years. After several trips to visit family in Michigan, they decided to move there. Sherry and Brian were inseparable. Their love and respect for each other carried them through anything and everything.

Sherry and Brian began creating one of a kind wooden clocks and furniture under the name of Burl Art. They were hired to create special pieces for individuals as well as businesses.

Sherry always had a love for animals. Over the years, she became a strong advocate for animals. She started and joined several groups to save animals in need, and is considered by many to be a warrior for animals.

A service will be scheduled in the Spring in St Ignace, MI. Details will be published at a later date.

Comments

“ Wow what to say. It's taken me and Floyd a while to come to grips that you're gone. The empty quiet nights. No Gigi crying and no Wilbur heehawing ugh... I just want to thank you and Brian for making me push forward and not give up on the cabin. You were my rock and I will miss you. Rest easy my sweet angel. I know you and Brian and smiling down on us and reuniting with family and animals.

Angel Walker - February 05 at 06:36 PM

“ 5 files added to the tribute wall

Stephanie A Smith - February 02 at 12:42 PM

“ Sherry, I will always keep you in my heart. You were such a strong and passionate person, and will be missed by so many. Hug Mom and Dad for me and rest easy now.

Your little sister, Stephanie

Stephanie A Smith - February 01 at 02:26 PM

“ 1 file added to the tribute wall

“ Sherry was a great person who had a huge heart & love for animals that was to be admired. I looked forward to talking & visiting with her on those beautiful summer afternoons where you could find her tending the goats & other critters, as she proudly called you over to come & see. I will miss seeing her smiling face & warm heart.....you will be missed. Although I didn't know Brian as well, he always a smile & a kind word whenever I saw him.....neighbors like this are a treasure.

Sandi - January 28 at 09:12 AM