“ The first day I met you was such a moment of beautiful spunky sunshine! I could feel the light that radiated from your soul. It crushes me that you are gone, only 5 years was I blessed to be in your world....but it feels like 500. You made such an impact on everyone you met, you left a little sunshine here and there. Hard times can fall on us all, and a sparkly shine like yours wasn't exempt from that. Oh how I prayed your inner sparkle and light would outshine all the difficulties this world was putting in front of you. How I wanted to keep you safe from it all. I can only take Peace knowing that you could feel and knew how much we loved you and believed in you and that your soul is no longer fighting, it is at rest in a beautiful, loving and wonderous place with God. My heart aches to just see your smile and hear your laugh again, I cannot fathom that you are gone. You will continue to be in my prayers as I miss you daily. Please shine some of that beautiful light down upon those struggling and needing it the most. I love you so dearly my friend!
Between you and me... difficult difficult lemon difficult!
So much Love from April, Jason, Emilee and Lincoln
