

Andrew Jacques Kranz

January 13, 1960 - January 27, 2016

Andrew J. Kranz, 56, of Williamsburg, passed away on January 27, 2016 at his home. Andy was born on January 13, 1960 in Bay City, Michigan. He graduated from Rochester High School in 1978 and then attended OCC and also GVSU. Andy served our country as a member of the U.S. Navy from 1986-1992 and was deployed on the USS Nimitz during Desert Storm. Andy was a devoted father to his children Whitney and Colton Kranz; beloved son of Jerry K. and Beverly J. Kranz; dear brother of Erik Kranz; and is also survived by his nieces and nephews and the mother to his children Linda Aginaga. Andy will long be remembered for his kind heart, great sense of humor, and endless love to his family. A memorial service will be held for friends and family in the spring. Memorial contributions may be made in Andy's honor to Disabled American Veterans or the Wounded Warrior Project. Arrangements entrusted to Kalkaska Funeral Home and Cremation Services.

“ Our hearts Go out the family...Andy was a great long time friend of my husband Mark..we became close over the years of racing...he will greatly missed. The humor and kind nature and tall tales always left us smiling at days end when in his presence... We are so sorry for your loss and our hearts are with you during difficult times... “ There is nothing I can say to you guys during this unbelievable time. I just found out I'm so sorry for your loss. I met Andy through his brother Erik which was a very good friend of mine. Andy took me right in as a friend and treated me as a brother. His love for his children was top notch. He was very proud and talked about both kids with passion. Same true to his dad mom and brother. Big heart and very kind guy. You will be terribly missed by everyone. One day again my friend we will meet again. Jerry,Beverly, Erik, Colton, Whitney. If there is anything I can do please let me know. My deepest condolences and love to you all. I truly am heartbroken and will miss him dearly
