

Ann Louise Richley

August 31, 1935 - September 3, 2017

Ann Louise Richley, 82, of Williamsburg, passed away on Sept. 3, 2017. She was born in Sidney, Ohio, and lived in Toledo, Ohio, for over 50 years. She, along with her family, spent her summers on Elk Lake.

Ann Richley was a registered nurse who throughout her career worked as a district nurse, a nurse at Toledo Hospital and a Red Cross nurse. She also volunteered in her community.

She attended Kalkaska Church of Christ.

She is survived by her brother, John Jackson; husband, Barton Richley; two daughters, Barb Winkler and Sandy Kroh; and grandson, Devin Kroh. She will be sorely missed here on earth, but her life will be celebrated in Heaven.

There will be a graveside service for family and friends at the Circle Hill Cemetery in Williamsburg on Thursday, Sept. 7, 2017, at 11 a.m. Friends are welcome to join the family after the service at Scheldes, 714 Munson Ave., Traverse City.

If anyone would like to honor Ann, please give a donation to St. Jude Children's Hospital in her name. Please mail your check to St. Jude Children's Hospital, 262 Danny Thomas Place, Memphis, TN 38105 or call 1 (800) 822-6344. Give them ID number 11061373, which is associated with Ann Richley's name.

Tribute Wall

KA

“ Sorry for the lose its a difficult time but the Bible hold s out a comforting hope at Rev 21:3,4 I hope it is a comfort to you all.

karens - September 07, 2017 at 07:37 AM

SH

“ Dear Bart and family,

so sorry for your loss of Ann. I remember all of you well from Boulevard Church of Christ. Sheryl Kenczewicz (Lou and Marcella Hogan's daughter)

Sheryl - September 06, 2017 at 02:32 PM