“ My mother Betty was the most beautiful women the world had to offer. She was a breath of fresh air in your darkest day. She would always have an ear and would offer the shirt off her back to help a stranger. She loved in a way no one could compare. She was a great loss to our family, friends and her work family. She will be missed beyond words could express. Her laugh and smile will be missed. The world is less bright without your smile and laugh.
