

Charles Wilson Wolfe

September 9, 1954 - August 27, 2020

Charles Wilson Wolfe, 65, of Traverse City, passed away on August 27, 2020 at Spectrum Butterworth in Grand Rapids. He was born on September 9, 1954 in Detroit to the late George and Gladys (Usher) Wolfe. Chuck was an avid hunter and outdoorsman. He worked many years in construction, also worked in computer sales, and was the owner of Northern Michigan Testing Inc. Chuck has been very involved in AA and recently received his 15 year chip for sobriety. He was president of The Alano Club of Grand Traverse for 10 years and past Chairman of TC Roundup. According to a friend "Chuck helped so many people on the road to recovery. He truly lived the 12th step, ready to carry the message of spiritual solution. He made a real difference in so many lives." Chuck continued making a difference by participating in eye donation. He found true happiness after meeting his wife Sandy and being a part of his grandchildren's lives. Chuck is survived by his wife Sandy Wolfe, grandchildren Ann, Stephen, and Joshua, three brothers, and one sister. He was preceded in death by his parents and his beloved dog Zach. A memorial will be held at their home on Saturday, September 12th at 2:00pm, fellowship and gathering will follow until 5pm. Memorial contributions may be made in Chuck's honor to The Alano Club of Grand Traverse, 3055 S. Cass Rd., Traverse City, MI 49686. Arrangements have been entrusted to Kalkaska Funeral Home and Cremation Services.

“ Although I hadn't spent much time with Chuck the last few years, I always considered him a friend. He & Sandy always had a smile & a kind word for me. He was a person who encouraged others & I believe he truly wanted the best for them. I am grateful to have known you Chuck & I hope you knew that!!
