“ Craig always greeted you with a friendly smile and kind words whether you were at the Gun Club or at Northwest Lock or walking down the street. He wanted to know what you had been doing and took a genuine interest in you. He also was eager to help and I recall several times him rescuing my kids who had locked themselves out of their cars and refused payment. He wasn't in it for the money, but enjoyed people and helping them. He had a kind soul and a spirit that will be missed dearly.
