

Dale Lee Nolff

October 20, 1954 - July 11, 2025

Dale Lee Nolff, 70, of South Boardman, passed away on Friday, July 11, 2025. He was born on October 20, 1954, in Grand Rapids, to the late Harry and Elizabeth (Chambers) Nolff.

Dale was known for his generous spirit—always willing to help anyone with anything. He valued his independence and lived life on his own terms. He had a passion for racing and loved visiting the Bristol Speedway and spending time in Tennessee with family. A motorcycle enthusiast, Dale also had a deep love for animals and was devoted to his family. He remained close with his parents, lovingly cared for his mother, and was a loyal friend and uncle.

He will be deeply missed by his siblings Geri Daddles, Beverly Maloney, and Bart Nolff; his special nieces Kathy (Phil) Campbell and Colleen Dalman; great-niece Dee Shepardson; several other nieces, nephews, great-nieces, and great-nephews; his special friend Kathy Kruse; his good friend Brett Williams; and his beloved dog and buddy, Ben, in Tennessee.

Dale was preceded in death by his parents; his twin sister, Gail Mousseau; and his brothers, Richard Nolff and Ted Nolff.

A memorial service will be held Saturday, September 20, 2025 at the family home in South Boardman from 1:00 to 4:00 PM. Arrangements have been entrusted to Kalkaska Funeral Home and Cremation Services.
