

Damon Charles Six

July 15, 1939 - August 2, 2015

Damon Charles Six, otherwise known as "Big D," went on his final trip when he passed quietly from this world to the next in the early morning hours of August 2, 2015. Born July 15, 1939, Damon was a simple man with simple pleasures. He enjoyed fishing, hunting, traveling around Northern Michigan, sightseeing, camping, car races, word search puzzles, and a good burger at the A&W in Frankfort. He was always ready to play some dice or a few hands of euchre. He loved telling jokes, making people laugh, and spending hours just chatting with anyone who would take the time. More than anything, he loved his family.

Damon is survived by the love of his life, Pat Sterzik. They shared 40 years and countless A&W burgers together. He is also survived by his children: Donald (Deborah) Sterzik, Brenda (Gayle) Nelson, Linda (Larry) Tennant, Bruce (Katherine) Six, and Roberta (Chris) LaMont, his siblings: Laverne Bennett, Sandra Crawford, and Gary Six, and numerous grandchildren, great grandchildren, nieces, and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents Fred and Fern Six, his daughter Beverly Sterzik, his brothers Larry Six and Dennis Six, and an infant daughter. Damon would want everyone to celebrate his life by sharing happy memories and laughing together. Nothing would make him happier. A graveside service will be held at 11:00 am on Saturday August 8, 2015 at the Cleon Township Cemetery in Copemish, Michigan.

Arrangements entrusted to Kalkaska Funeral Home and Cremation Services.
