

Dennis Keith Chall

January 6, 1957 - June 16, 2026

Dennis Keith Chall (1957 – 2026)

Born on January 6, 1957, in Detroit, Dennis grew up in Livonia and graduated from Bentley High School in 1975. On October 9, 2010, Dennis married Wanda Feick at Hartwick Pines Chapel. Together, they built a life filled with love and shared experiences, eventually retiring in 2020 to the idyllic lake home they built on Big Blue Lake in northern Michigan.

Dennis was a true outdoorsman at heart. He loved fishing, boating, and cycling across the state, but he especially treasured the many camping trips he took with his children as they grew up. A skilled woodworker who learned the craft from his father, he spent many hours in his workshop building kayaks, watch boxes, and various keepsakes for his family.

Beyond the workshop, Dennis was a talented cook who enjoyed perfecting recipes and continuing his mother's tradition of family holiday treats. His technical precision shone through in his passion for building and piloting RC planes, a hobby in which he earned the distinguished Level V status in the League of Silent Flight (LSF). A dedicated animal lover, he always found great companionship with the family dogs.

Above all, Dennis was a family man. He will be remembered fondly as a loving husband, father, grandfather, and friend. He is survived by his wife, Wanda Feick-Chall; his son, Jason Chall (Michelle Hudson); his daughter, Becki Chall (Kyle Henning); his stepson, Todd Feick; his step-grandson, Avery Feick; his siblings, Charles (Pat) Chall, Susan (Dave) Goodell, and Lori (John) LaFave; and his dog, Meika Jones. He was preceded in death by his parents, Robert and Mary Jean (née MacDonald) Chall.

“ I met Denny when he started dating my sister Peggy Watts in high school. They married and had 2 great kids (Becki and Jason). And although the marriage didn't last, their love for their kids did.

Denny was a good man and father. And he taught his son and daughter how to have adventure and fun. Condolences to all his family and friends. He will be missed.
