“ *I worked for Shell Oil onshore for years on locations where Denny had compressors on those locations. When he would be there servicing them I always tried to stop by and we would tell each other jokes and stories (maybe a couple of real fish tales).
Denny always had a big smile and you could tell that he truly loved his job and the people that he worked around.
Rest In Peace my friend,

“ I bought my first car from Denny, a '62 chevy impala in the early 70's for $250. It was a great car. I had a couple of "once in a life time" adventures in that rig. I've been gone from the area for the last 40 years. I've moved back and, because of Covid, I've only been connecting with old acquaintance's lives through obituaries. I'm glad to know that he kept his sense of humor because the guy was funny. I'm sure there is a huge hole in the hearts of Pam and his daughters. And his friends. We're all so much richer in our lives for knowing people like the Leach's. Lissa Farrell

Loved Dennis, you were all his girls and though he would say that jokingly he loved every minute of it. Dean and I are so very sorry for this loss. You are all in our thoughts and prayers

Dennis was a man I met about eight years ago. He was the friend I wish I would have met much earlier in my life. What a wonderful guy who loved his family and the outdoors. His loving daughters are his true legacy. Pam and Dennis were the nicest couple on earth who raised the three nicest girls on earth. I will miss sharing family, hunting and fishing stories with Dennis. I loved him like a brother. Rest In Peace my dear friend.
