“ Really dont know where to start or what to say. Don said many times we were more like brothers than just friends. The things we did together are too numerous to try and count. We worked together from where a great friendship was created that through the years grew to be one of love between us like brothers. He was there when I needed to talk to someone. Our fishing, hunting and hanging out together were special times that I will always cherish. Carmen was always there for my family and I as well, giving me bottles of wine I liked so much, baking her cookies, making Italian dinners for us. Always giving of herself over others. Living in Marquette now I always stopped by the house when I went to the Soo. I called first and she always asked "are you in town"? She always said come and see us. I always did. After over thirty years I can truly say they were more than special friends. My heart goes out to you Carmen and family. Until we meet again Don. Bert
