She was as much a mother to me as my own. Never let me get away with anything. ;-) She was there for me when my Mom passed as was her son, my best friend in the world. I will miss her and I know that my mother was there to welcome her home too. Love U Mommy Bunker!!

“ I can't begin to tell you how much I will miss my talks with my Aunt Doris or how much I loved her. I think I was a lot like her growing her being a big tomboy and all. I'm sure that is probably where I got some of my mischievous ways! That would make her laugh!!! I can still hear her and mom laughing when we were visiting Rainy Lake when I was about seven years old. Art and I were in the bed of the pickup sitting on the wheel wells. Aunt Doris was driving and hitting every bump on this dirt road which was throwing Art and I around. They were laughing so hard at tossing us around the bed of that tuck. I think to each other we were a connection to my mom. I will miss you dearly and until we meet again I love you, I love you, I love you!
