“ I remember all the times we had sleepovers as kids. Yours was the house to be at. Going to church at St. John Vianney. A bunch of us kids in your Mom and Dads back seat. Sleeping on living room floor. Ed was the one that looked so much like Grandpa. I remember the story of how he was so small he could fit in a shoe box when he was born. You will be missed very much Ed! Spending Christmas in Heaven. God bless your whole family.
