“ Ed was a very interesting guy that I met at Horizon Books. He was knowledgeable about many topics and certainly had strong opinions.

I hired him to do some work on a cottage. His fixes gave me many more years of use at a place so important in my life. I will always be thankful to him for that and I reminded him of his great work whenever I saw him. Ed once drove a Horizon Books customer back to their home on Elk Lake to get spare car keys when they dropped theirs down the sewer grate in front of Calli's. He loved film. He had a big heart and lived large. My condolences to his family. Rest in peace Ed. ----- Margaret from Horizon Books

“ Ed is in my thoughts and prayers. He always had an abundance of energy and ideas, and I had many interesting conversations and insights as a result of my friendship and interactions with him. I met Ed through the Padre (Lisle Earl) and am grateful to have known both of those men of deep thought..... Sam
