

Francis Joseph Borck

August 29, 1942 - March 9, 2017

Francis “Frank” Joseph Borck, 74, of Kalkaska, passed away at his home on Thursday March 9, 2017. Frank was born in Hudson Michigan to the late Alvin and Minnie (Kingsley) Borck on August 29, 1942. He worked at M& S Manufacturing in Hudson for 33 years. After retirement, Frank spent his time in the woods hunting and fishing; he especially enjoyed turkey hunting and was very good with turkey calls. In his later years Frank would build bird feeders and enjoyed watching the birds. Frank is survived by wife Mary of 53 years, children; Michael (Anke) Borck, Debra (Jim) Whittecar, grandchildren; Kimberly and Michael Borck, and sister Bernice Griffiee. He was preceded in death by his parents and his 3 brothers and 1 sister. A memorial service will be held in the spring. Memorial contributions may be made to the National Wild Turkey Federation in Franks memory. Arrangements have been entrusted to Kalkaska Funeral Home.
