“ I have some memories of us with other Fitzgerald friends-just hanging out and being typical teenagers. I loved when you came to my home on fathers day a few years ago and had dinner with my family. I appreciated your patience when you tried to teach me how to play Euchre! Most of all, I cherish your friendship and the beautiful quilt you made for my granddaughter.

Geri, I am blessed for the short time that I was given to know you. You touched our lives as you have to many others during your lifetime. Thank you for being an influence to my daughter, Brook, and for your friendship. I will miss our conversations. I love you, my friend.
