“ I'm just now hearing about my cousin's death. I treasured times spent with Harriet, she was so much fun to be with. Family reunions at Otsego Lake, and as a traveling couple (when Leroy was still alive) they came to our house (Rochester MI) for a brief visit while supporting a grandson's hockey I think? That was in the 90s I think and the last time I saw her in person. In talking with Nancy today, she let me know Harriet passed. Rest well sweet cousin. Gail & Eric Bothwell

“ We were neighbors with Harriet. We didn't see her often but when we did she was always great to talk to. She mentioned a few times that she would love to get out on the lake fishing but the kids didn't want her going out alone. She said she could do it and she was sure of it, but she respected her sons orders. We said she could come with us although it never happened. She said she knew where the hot spots were. She was one tough lady and didn't give up easily. We will miss her and send our sympathy to the family.

“ I am sorry to hear of Harriet's passing. My sincere sympathy to her son's and their families. Harriet was a great lady and a fun lady. A joy to meet and converse with.

I remember bowling with her. She was a good bowler. She kept things fun and lively. You all have many wonderful memories to sustain you through the sad times, and they will be great to keep mom and grandma with you in the days, weeks and months ahead. May God Bless each of you. Rest in peace Harriet.

“The kids always loved to visit “Grandma by the Lake.” They would get in the door and go straight to the lion cookie jar. Grandma Harriet would keep it stocked with Oreo cookies. The kids thought it was hilarious because when you opened the lid it would say, “get your hand out of my cookie jar.”

“ My first Hill family Christmas at Grandma Harriet’s will always stand out in my mind. The house was packed with food, and overflowing with family. In a silent moment I asked Grandma Harriet if the family knew how to play Euchre. She along with a few others gave me a quizzical look and said Do we know how to play euchre? Needless to say 2 cards tables were out in a blink and the tournaments were in immediate action.
