“*Heather Sue Campbell was the most wild free spirit I have met in my whole life. Her passing is one of the most grieving parts of my soul. I am so blessed to have been a part of her, her family, and friends. No words can express the value of life more than hers. “ Words cannot begin to describe the deep sorrow I am feeling for the loss of my dear friend. Through fate we met and became good friends and our friendship grew into a relationship that sisters would have. Sharing special moments of great fun, having many river trips, bomb fires, nights out on the town, listening to Aretha Franklin and quiet times at the lake. Like sisters do, we had our fights too, but it never lessened our love for one another and we kept our friendship strong despite our differences. Many times we spent discussing life and wanting to go back in time to the good ole days but there are too many obligations and not enough time. I realize now I should have made that time for you for now I will never get to talk and laugh with my friend again. I love you Heather and will miss your wild care free fun loving self, I will miss your teasing low growling prrrr sound you would make when there was a handsome man around, and the way you would start jumping up and down clapping your hands when something exciting was happening. My friend and my sister I will miss you every day. Thank you for all of the wonderful memories I have of you and our friendship. I will never let them fade. God has blessed my life by having you as my friend. Until we meet again I will hold my memories of you dear. Cami your Mom loved you so...don't ever forget that. You were always the first thing she would talk to me about, letting me know how you were doing in school & in sports and your beautiful pictures she shared with me with that proud smile she had just for when she spoke of you. I am sorry you had to lose her so young. I hope you find comfort knowing she is in God's healing hands, finally at peace. To Heathers family, know that she was a special vibrant beautiful person who touched so many people's lives and we are all saddened for your loss and ours. You will be in my prayers. God bless you Heather, my friend, my sister, I Love you and will miss you dearly.

“ Heather was so full of life, always smiling and carefree. She could make anyone laugh with that infectious contagious smile that that could brighten anyone’s day. She was a beautiful spirit and the world becomes a little dimmer without her. We pray she finds peace upon her new journey.

She will always be with us. When her daughter looks in the mirror, she can see a big part of her mother’s face reflected there. And when we look at the Campbell family, we can see a big part of Heather’s personality reflected there. Reflected there by the loving years they spent together.

My thoughts and prayers go out to her daughter, her parents, and her sister and the many extended family members.

I’ll remember Heather with a smile.
