“ I was lucky enough to have a really good talk with Jim just a few weeks before his passing. Jim had mentioned that he thought if he had a pool tube (floating devise) it would help to be able to sleep on his back so I sent him a couple to try out. Hopefully he received it before his passing or I am sure he got a good laugh out of it in heaven when it was opened after his passing and everyone was wondering why I sent them!

When we were kids in growing up in Venice he was much more than my cousin but a really good friend and I will miss him.

*Love to everyone!
