

James Wojtowicz Wilk

December 19, 2010

James "Jim" Wojtowicz Wilk, age 60, of Traverse City, passed away December 19th at his home. He was born on August 24, 1950, in Dearborn, to the late Florian John and Wanda Ann (Wilk) Wojtowicz. Jim grew up in Detroit, but after a visit to Traverse City he knew where he wanted to live. He volunteered regularly for the American Kennel Club, the Traverse City Film Festival, and whenever someone would ask. Jim was a handyman and was known for his love of dogs, his spirituality, and knowledge of current events, especially in Traverse City. Jim worked as an auto body technician, and even created a how to website to show do-it-yourselfers a professional point of view. Jim was always a good friend and will be dearly missed by all who knew him. Jim is survived by his brothers: Louis, David, William and Philip Wojtowicz; sisters: Rosanne Costello and Linda Rydzewski; his son Dylan; and many other family and friends. A memorial gathering will be held from 6-8 pm with a service at 7:00 pm on Wednesday, December 29, 2010 at Kalkaska Funeral Home, 152 S. Cedar St., Kalkaska. In lieu of flowers memorial contributions may be made to the Trust Fund for Dylan Nowlan. Arrangements were entrusted to the new Kalkaska Funeral & Cremation Services. Please sign Jim's online guestbook at www.kalkaskafuneralhome.com
