

John J. Homrich

May 4, 1941 - January 20, 2023

John J. Homrich was born on May 4th, 1941, in Petoskey, MI, to the late Clarence and Rose (Shremoski) Homrich. He married Judith DeWolfe on February 8th, 1964. Together they were blessed with four children: Tina, Tammy, Theresa, and Christopher. John is also the proud Papa of eight grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren. He liked to hunt and fish and was quite an artist having painted many beautiful works over the years. Mr. Homrich had a gift for playing the guitar as well. John was also accomplished in martial arts and achieved a high-ranking black belt. This great man served in the U.S Navy and worked as a police officer for the City of Howell. In his later years, he was a reserve deputy in Kalkaska. John has made a huge impact on countless lives and touched the hearts of many. He will truly be missed by all who knew him. A celebration of life will be held in the spring on a date that will be announced later. Arrangements have been entrusted to Kalkaska Funeral Home.
