April 30, 1942 - September 3, 2024

Judith Carolyn Fishburn, 82, of Kalkaska, passed away peacefully in her home on Tuesday, September 3, 2024. Born on April 30, 1942, in Detroit, Michigan, to the late James and Pauline (Beck) Sanford, Judith lived a life full of love and creativity.

She was a devoted wife, mother, and grandmother who cherished her family. Judith had a love for music, especially enjoying times singing with her sisters. She had a talent for the arts, particularly in crocheting, sewing, and pastel work, always finding joy in crafting beautiful pieces. Judith loved to laugh and joke around with others.

In high school, Judith was a member of the swim team. On May 6, 1962, she married her high school sweetheart, David John Fishburn, and together they built a life centered on love, family, and adventure. Judith found great happiness in spending time with her family, especially during rustic camping trips in Northern Michigan, where they created memories that will be treasured forever.

Judith will be deeply missed by her husband; daughter Linda (Mark) Dagen; son David B. Fishburn; grandchildren Nicholas and Jeremy (Julie); great-grandchildren Stella and Nicholas; brothers Jerry (Judi) and Jeff (Pat); sisters Christy (Bud) and Cheryl (Bob); and many nieces, nephews and cousins. She was preceded in death by her parents and brother Dennis.
