

Kenneth Lee Innis

June 6, 1949 - July 29, 2018

Kenneth Lee Innis, 69, of Kalkaska passed away at home on Sunday July 29, 2018. He was born on June 6, 1949 in Detroit to the late John and Louise (LaRue) Innis. Ken was warm and kind. He was quietly proud of his 18+ years of sobriety, but never lorded it over anyone. Ken never met a stranger. He enjoyed fishing, two tracking, hunting and welcomed many to his home and property over the years. Ken was quick with a smile and laugh, enjoyed just BSing and always seemed to make folks feel like they were the most interesting person in the room. That was his gift. "Pee Wee," as he was known to many, is survived by his wife Gail, son Louie, Daughter-in-law Maya and grandson Wyatt, daughter Sherrilee and her kids Lou and Juneau, and his eldest grandchild Samantha. He is also survived by his brother, Jack and countless beloved nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. Ken's loved ones who have passed before him include his step-daughter Jane Brennan, brothers Roy, Ernie, John and Louie. Arrangements have been entrusted to Kalkaska Funeral Home.
