“ Ken, you were one of the best people I ever had the pleasure to know and work with. Your forthrightness and wit was beyond compare and your work ethic beyond question. You and Tiffany taking me out to dinner for Christmas is still one of my favorite memories. It saddens me to think that an opportunity such as that will never happen again. From one old roughneck to another, gonna miss you brother.

“ I had such a wonderful time when I visited Michigan before moving to Hawaii. I had met Kenny online through family and he was always posting the funniest stuff. He was just as funny in person and also very caring and helpful. Kenny felt like family from the moment we met online and then in person. Tiff and the kids were the same, immediately accepted me into the fold when I came to visit and made me feel at home. I'm very sad that my husband Tony will never get to meet him, he really had a blast with him online. Maybe we'll all meet again in another lifetime and raise a glass to our friendship that seems so familiar. Miss you, rest in peace.
