“ To have been in her presence, to have laughed with her, and to have been loved by her will forever be a joy my heart will hold! My times with her are such a treasure! My heartfelt joy to her on her passage to a better place in that new, pain free, perfect body we so often discussed. What joy you daughters brought her and her beloved Rachel! God called home a good one indeed! Connie Farrier

“ Lela introduced me to the poetry of Mary Oliver. Her words from "In Blackwater Woods" have meant so much to me through the fires of loss this year.

*"To live in this world
you must be able to do three things:
to love what is mortal;
to hold it against your bones knowing your own life depends on it;
and, when the time comes to let it go,
to let it go."*
