

Leslie J. Main

November 15, 1925 - January 7, 2019

Leslie J. Main, 93 of Rapid City passed away at his home on January 7, 2019. He was born to the late Herman and Velma (Pangborn) Main on November 15, 1925 in Flint. Leslie proudly served in the United States Navy during WWII, and worked for Fisher Body as a general foreman. After his retirement, Leslie built a beautiful home in Rapid City on Torch River where he was able to fish and hunt. He will be greatly missed by many. Leslie will lovingly be remembered by his wife of 71 years, Leverne (Booher), children; Nancy (Robert) Davies, Leslie Main, Ronald Main, Barbara (Daniel) Buck, 21 grandchildren, 27 great grandchildren, 6 great great grandchildren. Leslie was preceded in death by his parents, grandson Thomas Buck, and brothers; Robert Main and George Main.

Tribute Wall

MS

“ I always loved caring for Leslie, he was such a gracious man. I always enjoyed our conversations and also caring for his sweetheart LeVern
Mary K . Slick

Mary Slick - January 10, 2019 at 02:20 PM

LA

“ What a sweet sweet man. I work at the hospital and meet him a few years back. We always had great conversations and he was excited when he found out whom my Dad was as he had known him for years. I will sure miss seeing him. My condolences to the whole family.

Laura

Laura - January 10, 2019 at 09:36 AM

GC

“ Sorry for your loss we have been friends since 1978, went boating, had dinners and played cards loved it when we could beat the guys, you are sure missed.

gisela chilson - January 09, 2019 at 03:45 PM

IE

“ My sympathies to the family. I met Laverne and Les playing Euchre atthe Little Red School House many years ago. We had gone back and forth to our homes for cards and to play Mexican train.

irene Estelle - January 08, 2019 at 04:51 PM