“ I'm so sorry to hear about the families loss. They were such a close family and I know this will be a very hard loss for them. Linda was a great woman. She was so funny and had a welcoming character that spread through the whole town. She will be loved and missed for a very long time. I'm glad I got the chance to meet her.

“ I knew Linda way back when but my last encounter with her was when my Dad died in 2005. She came to the house to pick some things up and she was so kind and compassionate. She will be missed. Family, treasure the memories as these will bring you comfort. God bless you with peace during this most sorrowful time.

“ Seldom a complaint. Usually a happy smile. You are missed by all that you worked with.

Her willingness to always be helpful was known to everyone she worked with. She was analytical in both her work performance and her thoughtfulness. We miss her.
