

Louis "LT" Thomas Davis

May 19, 1925 - October 5, 2013

Louis "LT" Thomas Davis, 88, of Maple City, passed away peacefully on Saturday, October 5, 2013 at his home comforted by his family. LT was born on May 19, 1925 in Depoy, Kentucky to Claude Davis and Mary Etha Dixon. On June 29, 1946, LT married the love of his life, Patricia Phyllis Brill and together they raised four boys.

LT worked for many years at Hydramatic Transmission as a master mechanic. He had a knack for making friends wherever he went and was perhaps the greatest storyteller of his time. He welcomed everyone into his home, sang to his great-granddaughters, and never turned his back on a wayward soul. LT was an avid horseshoe player and could make the best bloody mary you've ever tried.

LT is survived by his sons: James Davis of Cedar and William Davis of Vallejo, CA; daughter in law Kathy Warsaw of Wayne; sister Claudia Anderson of Canton; grandchildren: Brian Davis of Maple City, Natalie Wolfe of Menlo Park, CA, and Evan Davis of Grawn; great-granddaughters Perla and Frances Wolfe; along with many other loving family members and friends.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Patricia; sons Thomas and Michael; parents Claude and Mary Etha; sisters Avanelle Squibbs, Charlotte McCowan; brothers James Lee Davis, Dixon Davis, Macon Davis, Clayburn Davis, Rayburn Davis.

A celebration of LT's life will be held October 19th at the American Legion Hall, Post 199, in Maple City at 1:00 PM. Arrangements were entrusted to Kalkaska Funeral Home and Cremation Services.
