

Marilyn Louise Pojar

July 9, 1939 - October 30, 2014

SOUTH BOARDMAN – Marilyn L. Pojar, a devoted daughter, sister, wife, mother, aunt, grandmother and friend continued on to the next part of her life's journey surrounded by her family on October 30, 2014 at Munson Medical Center after spending several years courageously battling various medical complications.

Marilyn Louise Stahr was born on July 9, 1939 in York, Nebraska to the late Ralph and Mildred (Freeman) Stahr. She worked in retail after high school until she married Weldon "Wally" Pojar on August 24, 1958 when she became a loving homemaker and adoring mother to her daughters Kellie and Debra. As a family, they moved to and from various states for Wally's job in the oil field. They were able to make their home after years of traveling in South Boardman, Michigan in 1972 where they made many close friends and became a part of a strong community.

Marilyn was always happy to provide a welcoming home and place to stay, a good meal and a long talk to anyone who came to their house on the hill. She was able to participate in their daughters' school functions and was one of the founding members of the Forest Area School board and served for several years as its secretary. She was an avid bowler on the local bowling league and an active member in the community. Marilyn and Wally were always helping others. After Wally passed away in 2000, she spent her time with her family and close friends; continuously caring for everyone she could, while still maintaining her humble disposition and witty sense of humor. She will be remembered for her giving spirit, her loving, inquiring nature and her one of a kind personality.

She will be missed and remembered by those who survive her including her daughters Kellie (Bob) Wagenschutz of South Boardman, Debra Pojar of Traverse City, brother Jim (Adena) Stahr of Nashville, Tennessee, her niece (daughter) Joyce (Tim) Zellner, close nephew Barry (Bonnie) Stahr of Lewiston, Michigan, grandchildren Emily Rose, Sarah Belle, Scotty, Zach, Bekah, Mataya and Damien, step-grandchildren Adam (Erin), Jessica (Phil), Jimmy, and Alyssa along with many other nieces, nephews and their children and her beloved dogs Ellie and Chester. She was loved and supported by many close friends in South Boardman, Fife Lake and Kalkaska along with extended family members all over and from Nebraska who she cherished immensely.

In lieu of flowers, Marilyn requested that donations be made in her honor to the Kalkaska Commission on Aging or to the South Boardman United Methodist Church. A memorial service will be held on Monday, November 3rd at the South Boardman United Methodist Church at 1 o'clock with a luncheon to follow a semi-private burial at the South Boardman Cemetery.

Arrangements have been entrusted to Kalkaska Funeral Home and Cremation Services.
