

Maureen Margaret Postma

January 30, 1944 - June 7, 2024

Maureen M. Postma (Kelly) aged 80, of Byron Center, went to meet her Lord on June 7th 2024. Maureen was born on January 30th 1944 in Cadillac Michigan to the late John M. Sr & Naomi Kelly. Shortly after graduating from Cadillac High School, she attended a business school in Wisconsin. She then spent a few years working in Washington D.C. for the government. Maureen then returned to the Grand Rapids area of Michigan where she was a book keeper until she retired in 2008.

Maureen enjoyed many hobbies throughout her life and many outdoor activities. Skiing was influenced by her older brother John. She was on a bowling league for many years. Maureen married Joe, in June of 1984 and they camped often in Cadillac. They also enjoyed gardening. Maureen's mother taught her to sew and she continued that until recently. Maureen always loved spending time with her family. She enjoyed cooking and loved having friends over for all the holiday cookouts and dinners. Maureen has spent the last 10 years volunteering at the Buist Community Assistance Center. She loved the work and the wonderful friends she made there. It was her extended family.

Maureen is preceded in death by parents John Sr. and Naomi Kelly, husband Joseph Postma, brother John Jr. and Lillian Kelly. Survived by niece Rosalyn (John) Dittmer of Traverse City, nephew Shawn (Karry) Kelly of Kingsley and their families and also the many nieces and nephews of the Postma family.
