

Mildred Janet Dewar

April 30, 1932 - October 26, 2018

Mildred Janet Dewar, 86 of Kalkaska passed away peacefully on October 26, 2018. She was born on April 30, 1932 in Flint to the late John Leah (Young) Campbell. Janet loved to bake; she especially liked watching people take pleasure in her sweet treats. She was very crafty and enjoyed various crafts. Janet was known for always helping others and liked to joke around with everyone.

Janet will be lovingly remembered by her children Janice Horton and Terry Neihardt, many grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Janet was preceded in death by her husband Glen Dewar, and son-in-law Robert Horton. A celebration of life will be held in the spring. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made in Janet's honor to the Kalkaska Memorial Health Center, Long Term Care. The family would like to thank the staff at the Eden Center for the care and support shown during her time there. Arrangements are entrusted to the Kalkaska Funeral Home and Cremation Services.

Tribute Wall

RZ

“ I'm so sorry for your loss I hope all your wonderful memories helps you through this sad time.
I've been reflecting on the memories of good times and laughter with Janet and Glen.
Rest in peace my friend and Thanks for the Memories.
Rose Zech

Rose Zech - November 02, 2018 at 07:38 PM

JP

“ My heart goes out to all of you, Janice. You, the girls, your mother's son Terry. I will miss her laugh, her monkey bread, the crochet scrubbies and will treasure her recipe for her Chicken Corn Chowder...even though she failed to include the chicken! Hugs to everyone.

Jan Pickford - October 30, 2018 at 11:47 PM

SO

I am so sorry for your loss. She was a big part of my life at the Eden center. She loved to bake. Ill never forget making banana blueberry bread with her. She always put a smile on my face. Thank you to the family for letting us care for her. She will be miss by all. God Bless. Sonia In activities. ❤️

Sonia - November 01, 2018 at 09:17 AM