

Pauline K. Morey

September 3, 1939 - September 14, 2023

Pauline Kay Morey, 84, of Traverse City, Michigan, passed away peacefully on Thursday, September 14, 2023. She was born to Donald and Alzada (Griffith) Beaver in her hometown of Kalkaska on September 3, 1939. She took joy in watching her grandchildren excel in sports and attended countless events to support them wholeheartedly. Her quick wit and jovial spirit made her the family's beloved jokester, always ready with a smile and a clever quip. One of Pauline's simple pleasures in life was the tradition of Sunday drives, shared with her beloved husband, George. Pauline's home always welcomed you with a jigsaw puzzle on the table, calling anyone to join in the fun, and a stack of board games ensured that laughter and friendly competition were never in short supply. Beyond her love for her family, Pauline enjoyed fishing and painting her husband George's crafted woodwork. Pauline will be lovingly remembered by her husband George Edward Morey; children Kerry Morey, Wesley (Carol) Morey, Duane (Kelly) Morey; grandchildren Corey, Ashley, Brittany, Justin (Missy); great-grandchildren Wes, Madison, Nolan, Daniel, Lily, Niro; siblings Donna Deverney, Richard (Marilyn) Beaver, Arlene Hall, and Connie (Mike) Winter. She was preceded in death by her father Donald Beaver, mother Alzada Stuck, step-father Ellis "Huck" Stuck, and her brother Paul Beaver. To celebrate Pauline's life, a funeral service will be held at Kalkaska Funeral Home on Tuesday, September 19, 2023 at 11:00 am with a visitation one hour prior to the service beginning at 10:00 am. The burial will follow at Oliver Township Cemetery. Arrangements have been entrusted to Kalkaska Funeral Home and Cremation Services.
