

Mr. Roger Lee Ingersoll

November 3, 1967 - December 28, 2017

Roger Lee Ingersoll, 50, of Fife Lake, passed away unexpectedly at his home on December 28, 2017. Roger was born November 3, 1967 in Kalkaska to Robert and Dana (Calkins) Ingersoll.

Roger is remembered through his two loving sons, Aaron Michael and Jordan Lee Ingersoll; three grandchildren Alexis, Baily, and Lillionna Ingersoll; four brothers Mike, Myran, Tom and Ron Ingersoll; and many cousins, nieces and nephews.

Roger spent most of his working days in the Christmas trees doing everything from planting them to harvesting and selling them. Although he worked most of his life in the trees, many said he had the potential to be a lawyer or legal counsel. He was a very smart man who would admit when he was wrong but would definitely let you know when he was right.

Roger was a very caring soul who would always lend a helping hand. Much of Roger's free time was spent with his family and friends. He often could be found barbecuing on a nice summer day or simply sitting indoors around the table enjoying conversation during the cold winter times. He also enjoyed hunting, fishing and searching for morel mushrooms. He was very convinced he knew some of the best spots for all.

Roger was loved by many and will be missed but never forgotten.
