“ I just learned today of Shirley passing. I would have attended the service for her had I known. I have fond memories of spending time at the farm with Cookie who was my friend and classmate. I'm so sorry for your loss. Condolences to you, Ed, and the extended family. Reatha Gray Cochran

“ Although I never had the pleasure of meeting Shirley, she and Ed have always been very special to me. When I was unable to take my fur babies Raven and Cody when I moved into my condo, they adopted them and loved and cared for them. Shirley always keep me updated and posted pictures for me to see and for that reason I know how truly special she was. Now Shirley and Raven have crossed the Rainbow Bridge together. RIP dear Shirley.

“ Shirley was my best friend at Amway Always a smile on her face. Even after She moved with her hubby Ed to Kalkaska we still kept in Touch. She simply was a great fantastic lady. We kind of had similar experiences in our lives and we often joked about it. I sure am going to miss her.
