“ Deepest sympathy to all that lost this son, father, uncle, grandfather and friend. Tom was a interesting character and I have no doubt he will continue to be so in heaven. You always knew where he stood, he never sugar coated anything.

I will miss him dearly, and will treasure memories of the race track, and the work he and my dad did replacing the engine on my first car, even as frustrating as it was, you could see the really enjoyed hanging out together to get it done. More recently his visits to Aunt John's house in Dexter was a great time to catch up with him.

He truly had a lot of pride and love for his children and grandchildren. I feel it is important for them to know that, and hope that memories of Tom will give them some comfort.
