“ I am stunned to see that Vicki has passed away. I knew her many, many years ago when she lived in the Williamsburg area and her boys were small. She was a very warm and friendly person, and I can still see her beautiful smile as though she was right in front of me. My thoughts and prayers to her husband and children and grandchildren. “ I met Vicki 21 years ago. She was one of the few people that I considered a friend. She was always there with a smile and an encouraging word whenever you were going thru a rough time. Barbi, I remember that day that we were shopping for flowers and Vicki and I got a little "tipsy". We had such a good day, not a care in the world. One of my fondest memories of her. I will miss her terrible.

To her friends and family, I am so sorry for your loss. She was taken from us way to soon. I doubt that there is a person is out there, who had met her that wasn't affected by her uplifting spirit. Godspeed Vicki.

“ I am so very sadden to hear about Vicki. Although I didn't know her well, it was easy to see how kind and caring she was. How much she loved her family and friends, how during her own struggles she took the time to reach out to me this past summer when my son was facing his health issue's. Her encouraging words brought tears to my eyes, for I knew his struggles were minimal compared to the battles she has fought and was still fighting. Vicki, I am so very glad our paths crossed in this life, you are an inspiration to all of us on how to "Keep Smilin' " (how we signed off on each e-mail) no matter what life throws at us. God Bless You Vicki, you will be missed by so many!

“ Dear Brad, Tim, Jeromy & Family

Vicki was loved by all that she came in contact with.

The sadness that we are all feeling with her departure hurts deeply, but I know that she is looking down from heaven on all of us right now.

In one of her last text messages to me it stated that she was so lucky to have Freddy and I, but the truth is that we were the lucky ones to have had her in our everyday lives. Sharing your daily thoughts with someone is special and the trust that we shared will forever be missed.

My memories are very very fond and I will cherish each and every one of them!! I will miss her smile and laughter the most of all, as they lit up any room.

I think of her daily and I will keep you all in my daily prayers.

*Please let me know if you ever need anything at all. Barbi

“ There are so many memories, where do I start. I guess one that really stands out is when Kim Simko, Vicki and I did our ritual visit to Fusions in Frankfort and then would head out to Crystal Gardens to fill up the van with all sorts of flowers for the annual planting season. The girls both decided to have one of the drink specials that day with me sticking to my boring iced tea since I was the driver for the day. They both had such a little buzz on that we just laughed and laughed throughout the remainder of the day. The van was filled with all the amazing spring spells and yet another successful flower shopping experience!!

Oh and I cannot leave out all the trips to Chicago. Vicki loved to shop and due to the time of the year we shopped until we dropped on those fall days looking for all the great deals for Christmas. And of course all the grandkid and Brad were the main focus. Then of course Saturday night Freddy, Vicki and I would get all dressed up for a Chicago evening and would head out to enjoy an amazing dinner and bottle of wine to finish out the evening. The three of us acted like we owned the city for the day!

I love and miss you Vicki Vicki...just like the last text you sent to me stating that you loved Feddy and I like there was no tomorrow.

You will always be in my thoughts!!

There will forever be a void in my heart.

“ Vicki, the first time I met her, was living in Elk Rapids. She and Brad taught me to enjoy an excellent gin and tonic! Smoked oysters on salty crackers and a good game of wink. Her quick laughter endeared her to me, immediately. Talking with her about writing and setting up her blog spot gave me some very cherished memories.

“ Vicki. I will miss you. You were one of the nicest people I have ever met. I was blessed to have you in my life. So beautiful inside and out. All the years I've known you - you never had a negative thing to say about anyone. I know how much you loved your husband, kids, grand kids, great grand child and your friends. Even in the end you were dignified and full of grace. You truly are one of the best friends I've ever had. I love you Vicki! Your light will shine bright forever in all the lives that you touched.
