“ Auntie, you were the best Aunt I could’ve asked for! You taught me how to crochet, how to do plastic canvas, even the first steps to the sewing machine. We shared a lot of laughs and a lot of talks. You and Uncle Tom were always kind to me and even as I entered adulthood, became a wife and even a mom that love never changed. You both showed my husband and our boys the same love and kindness. Keep watch over us up there! Love and miss you always Auntie!

“ Growing up down from the Seyler’s was awesome, the boys were the toughest guys I knew and they always looked out for the underdog. Virginia and Tom always treated us like one of their own even though the house was full already. I loved how she was tough yet compassionate at the same time all why raising those boys and sweet Faith. I will guarantee you she will get things straightened out in heaven as she did on earth. We will all miss this special lady.

“ I have known Ginny for a long time. I considered her my best friend. We lost touch from time to time, as it happens in life. But we always found each other again. I watched her raise 6 great kids. She was a great mom. She loved her kids. She loved her husband, and worked with him to build a good home for them all. She was a good listener. As the kids grew up she got sad as each one left the nest. She longed for them to all be together. She loved her grandkids very much. Life got harder as she aged, as we all know. I love her very much. I can't wait to see her in Heaven. We talked about God and I know she trusted him. Save me a seat girlfriend, I'm not far behind!
