“ Wayne was my grandpa and he was the best man that I have ever met. I miss him every single day that goes by. But when I really think about it he is not suffering anymore and I just can't comprehend that he is actually gone. I have spent everyday thinking about him fighting back the tears that my bestfriend is no longer here with us. But me and the family have to stick together and work together to keep grandpa happy up there.

“ Wayne was always smiling a bright spot for my day at work. Quick with a joke and always willing to give you a hand if you needed it.

Wayne was a great guy, new him for a long time. He was fun to work with, did a great job for me at work in my department. I know he was a good husband for Bev, which I still call my sisterinlaw. He was a good father for the girls. It was a honor to know and work with him. RIP, Wayne.
