

Wendell Ray Reedy

September 22, 1949 - July 31, 2024

Wendell Ray Reedy, of Kalkaska, MI, passed away on July 31, 2024. He was 74.

Wendell was born on September 22, 1949, to Willard Franklin and Edith Estelle (Lambert) Reedy in Ewart, MI. Wendell attended the Ewart Public Schools and graduated in 1967. Wendell enlisted in the US Navy in 1968 and was honorably discharged in 1969. He loved this country and the American Flag and was always proud of his time spent in the Navy.

On April 28, 1973, he married the love of his life, Alberta Funke of Farwell, MI. They eventually made their home in South Boardman, MI. Wendell worked for Magcobar and Dresser Oil Tools for the majority of his career. Wendell always enjoyed hunting and fishing and camping with his family. He and his wife were avid golfers and enjoyed traveling to various golfing destinations.

Wendell especially loved being in the woods during hunting season. He and Alberta were long time members of the Fife Lake American Legion.

Wendell is preceded in death by his parents; Willard and Edith Reedy; and Sisters Marilyn Pritchard, and Teri Sprague.

Left to cherish his memory are his loving wife Alberta; daughter Wendy (Henry) Patton and their children Cameron, and Brooklyn Patton of Fife Lake; and daughter Brenda (Jerry) Runstrom and their daughter Sophia Runstrom of Kingsley; His brother Gordon (Pam) Reedy of Weidman, MI; along with many nieces, nephews and cousins.

Arrangements have been made for a visitation at the Kalkaska Funeral Home, 152 S. Cedar St. Kalkaska, MI for Sunday, August 4th, from 5 to 7 pm and then at 10 am on Monday, August 5th with the funeral to follow at 11 am. Following the funeral, a graveside service is planned for 2:00 pm at the Sylvan Township Cemetery in Ewart, MI. A luncheon is planned immediately following at the Faith Bible Church 10737 30th Ave. (M66), Ewart, MI 49631.

The family has suggested any contributions can be made to the Faith Bible Church.

Arrangements have been entrusted to Kalkaska Funeral Home & Cremation Services.
