“ We are so sorry to hear of the passing of Susan and William. I was blessed to get to know Susan a little and we had a few meaningful conversations over the last several years. William was a part of our family when he was in the area, sharing some much loved vacations at our favorite spots in the UP and we continued to connect by phone after he moved away. I know that he wasn't big on having his picture taken, but I've shared a few from our times with him and I hope they are a blessing to you all.

To Kelli, Amanda, and Sarah and your families, we are so sorry for your loss. Losing a mom is one of the hardest losses to bear in life and I can't imagine losing a brother so soon afterward. My heart aches for you all.

Sarah and Joe, we are still close by. If there is any way we can be of help to you, please don't hesitate to stop by. Sometimes it's help with the small stuff that means the most.
